The CEPU has successfully negotiated Injury Cover with Protect, Australia's leading worker entitlement fund, supporting over 60,000 members nationwide.

We're working to have this benefit written into agreements, with the cost fully covered by employers, so every member enjoys the same level of protection.

If you suffer a specified injury, you'll receive a valuable lump sum payment to help cover expenses and ease financial strain while you recover.

This is about more than just money, it's about peace of mind, knowing your union stands with you when life takes an unexpected turn.
